the river is afraid to enter the ocean as we are afraid of the future. But he can't go back. Nobody can go back in life.

The characters are the river and the ocean. The river represents life, the ocean represents the future, the unknown

The poet is Khalil Gibran. He was from Lebanon but he lived and worked in the Usa.

The title "Fear" means paura

The only possibility is to enter the ocean. Once you enter it you realize you are not afraid anymore.

my oceans are high school, being alone...
